

Interpersonal Communication Activity

Video Review Finding Forrester

Consider the following questions as you watch the movie Finding Forrester in class. After the movie, answer the questions at home and bring them back to class. Each question is worth 2.5 points for a total of 10 points for the assignment. Good luck and feel free to use your text as a reference.

1. Using examples from the movie, describe the role language plays in Jamal's convergence and divergence with other people/groups.
2. Describe several instances where in the movie non-verbal communication was used to create or maintain relationships, regulate interactions, influence others, conceal or deceive, or to manage identity.
3. Give examples from the movie where a character heard but did not listen and explain the consequences.
4. What role does the recognition and expression of emotions (or lack thereof) play in providing barriers and doors for Forrester's relationship with Jamal?